

Wishing my baby a Day Filled with Love

Valentine's Day

is upon us once again.

*It's a day marked with flowers,
chocolates, and gifts and so on and so on, and some mekwegs*

May your day be filled with all of these sweet things, except the mekwe 😊😊😊

A love that is genuine and embraces
you for your true
self."

"A love that flourishes and reassures you that you're never alone.

A love that endures deeply and withstands all challenges.

A love that perseveres and remains steadfast, never leaving your side.

And a love that
nurtures your soul,
mind and makes you
feel alive.

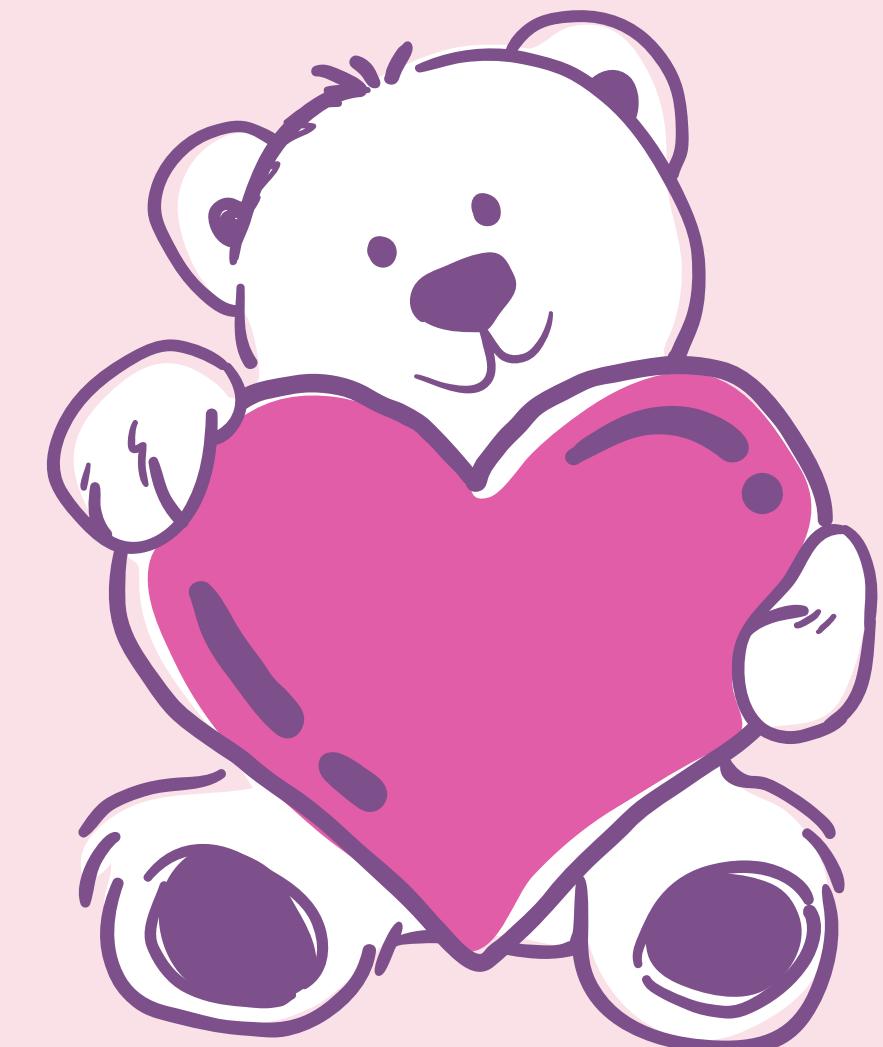

May you feel the love all around
- not only today, but every day,
and for the rest of your life.

All I am tryna say is I LOVE YOU till
 ∞

Have a Happy Valentine's Day baby!

Yours truly, LK ❤
